

Hope COLLEGE

PRESIDENT

The Board of Trustees of Hope College announces the search for the College's twelfth president. The search has been launched in response to Dr. James Bultman's decision to retire after fourteen years of distinguished service as Hope's president, a period of steady growth for the institution.

It is Hope's mission to educate students for lives of leadership and service in a global society through academic and co-curricular programs of recognized excellence in the liberal arts and in the context of the historic Christian faith. The College seeks a visionary leader who inspires excellence in others and is committed to and capable of advancing the mission.

The successful candidate will share the core values that shape Hope: to offer rigorous academic programs -- to contribute to the body of knowledge in the academic disciplines -- to nurture vibrant Christian faith -- to be a caring community -- to foster development of the whole person, intellectually, socially and physically -- to be wise stewards of resources; and will be capable of communicating Hope's mission, vision and distinguishing qualities, with excellence, to its various constituencies.

Hope College is a part of the community of Holland, Michigan, which is located on Lake Macatawa near the shores of Lake Michigan.
